6. Parashurama, the Warrior

The kings and other politicians had become selfish and greedy. They were always at war - they even killed cows, women, and holy people. Swinging his mighty axe, Parashurama destroyed them all. From their blood, he made nine new lakes.